AO 245B (Rev. 09/17) Judgment in a Criminal Case Sheet 3A — Supervised Release

Judgment—Page	4	of	7

DEFENDANT: Gregory R. Lee CASE NUMBER: 2:17cr192

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: Gregory R. Lee CASE NUMBER: 2:17cr192

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall not view or possess material, images, videos or computer files containing sexually explicit conduct as defined by 18 U.S.C. §§ 2256(2)(A) and (B).

The defendant shall submit to the installation of software, and to monitor computer activities on any computer he is authorized to use at his own expense. The software will record any and all activities on the defendant's computer. The software will be checked on a periodic basis. Defendant has no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer and shall make other users of said computer aware of the monitoring software. The defendant understands and agrees that information gathered by said software may be used against the defendant in subsequent Court actions regarding the defendant's computer use and conditions of supervision. Furthermore, the defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the Computer and Internet Monitoring Agreement and the Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Agreement as adopted by the Southern District of Ohio.

The defendant shall not indirectly or indirectly gain access in any manner to any computer that does not have monitoring capabilities.

The defendant shall participate in sexual offender treatment, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed. He shall also be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer and at his expense. He shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation office. Defendant shall sign all necessary authorization forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, probation officers, polygraph examiners and others (as necessary) are allowed to communicate openly about the defendant and his relapse prevention plan. The defendant will make a co-payment for treatment services not to exceed $25.00 per month which is determined by defendant's ability to pay.

In consideration of 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d)(3), the defendant shall submit and/or surrender any media device, to which they have access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion or contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. A media device is defined as, but not limited to, any device which is capable of accessing internet, storing images text, or other forms of electronic communication.

The defendant shall have no contact with the victim or the victim's family.
